

FLORHAM QUEEN'S RACING INVITES INVESTIGATION

Stewards Might Find Reason for Startling Reversal of Form by Questioning A. C. McCafferty, Father of the Boy Who Has Always Ridden the Mare.

Perhaps the stewards at Sheepshead Bay may take the trouble to compare the races of Florham Queen at Saratoga with that run by this mare on the turf yesterday. They will note that yesterday she was a 10 to 1 chance, and that she had a remarkable lot of speed. They will note also that in her last race on the turf at Saratoga she was a 6 to 1 chance, and that she had no speed. They know, of course, that the mare was bid up by A. C. McCafferty yesterday, and if they will take the trouble to question Mr. McCafferty they may obtain a bit of information from him.

Florham Queen, carrying 96 pounds, and young Charlie McCafferty started in a race on the turf on Aug. 21 at Saratoga. She was heavily backed, but had no speed and steadily dropped out of it, finishing a bad fifth to Stonewall, Dark Planet, Flora and Peninsular. Young McCafferty always rode the mare. He understood her well, and had won several races on her. On the following day McCafferty's father met the owner of Florham Queen, and it is said that the former told the latter his boy would not be permitted to ride the mare again. "Why not?" asked the owner. "Well," replied McCafferty, "the mare ran a bad race yesterday, and I don't want my boy to have those kind of mounts."

"Do you mean to insinuate that the mare was dead under the boy?" blurted the owner.

"I'm not insinuating anything," replied McCafferty. "I'm simply informing you that my boy won't ride Florham Queen again, and you had better get another rider."

Another rider was procured in the person of O'Brien, one of Bill Daly's apprentices. She was started in a race on the turf on Aug. 22 at Saratoga, and she ran such an improved race as to call forth considerable comment.

The story was then current that the stewards were considering an investigation. Nothing came of the matter, however.

Yesterday Florham Queen was a very sweet mare, indeed. She went to the front at once, and tipped her field, leading to the stretch by half a dozen lengths, and winning pulled up from MANY THOUSAND CHEER M'ANUS.

Largest Crowd Ever Known at Sulzer's Harlem River Park Attend His Outing.

The largest crowd that ever passed through the gates of Sulzer's Harlem River Park attended the annual reception of the T. J. McManus Association. The attendance was estimated at between 50,000 and 60,000. Entertainment was there for all; pipers were stationed at different points in the park; there were reels and jigs for prizes; and three full-sized orchestras were among the features of the occasion. T. J. McManus, the standard-bearer, received an ovation that threatened to raise the roof.

Among the notable lights in the political world who were present were Alderman Richter, Senator Fitzgerald, Judges O'Brien and McCall, John Sexton, William Sulzer, "Florie" Sullivan, John A. Hannaberry, "Tom" Foley, "Battery Dan" Finn and his rival, Michael Kennedy, William Dalton and Capt. J. J. Farrell. Seven hundred delegates to the convention of the Eagles, which goes into session Wednesday, were on hand from different parts of the country, as was also Miss Mary Wood, of Troy, sister of a prominent politician in that part of the State, who makes an annual party to the McManus gathering.

The officers of the association are William J. Kelly, President; P. P. O'Connor, Treasurer; Patrick Bluto, Financial Secretary; John McGovern, Recording Secretary; and Frank Joyce, Corresponding Secretary.

DICK WELLES FOR SMATHERS STABLE

Rumors at Gravesend that Famous Western Three-Year-Old Will Be Brought East—Slow Work on Bad Track.

GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, Sept. 1.—It is rumored around Gravesend this morning that E. E. Smathers has bought of J. B. Respones the three-year-old bay colt Dick Welles, by King Brian—Tess. Over the reported price being $10,000.

Trainer Frank Taylor will have the colt in charge upon his arrival at Sheepshead Bay race track, where the balance of the Smathers string is now quartered.

E. R. Thomas's Tardam galloped a half mile nicely in 0:58. The Featherstone thoroughbreds were all sent to useful gallops. BOSTON SHOULD WIN.
Should Boston and Pittsburgh meet in a world's championship series it looks as though the American Leaguers should win. Outside of the pitching and catching the teams are about evenly matched, but Boston's batteries will land the victory.—Philadelphia Record.

SWANDER A COMER.
According to "Billy" Hamilton, Swander is the most promising young outfielder doing the minors down East. He is a new "kid," a great hustler, from different parts of the country, as was also Miss Mary Wood, of Troy, sister of a prominent politician in that part of the State, who makes an annual party to the McManus gathering.

The officers of the association are William J. Kelly, President; P. P. O'Connor, Treasurer; Patrick Bluto, Financial Secretary; John McGovern, Recording Secretary; and Frank Joyce, Corresponding Secretary.

Great Western Horse, in Company with Irene Lindsay, Does Slow Gallop—Flatbush Candidates Fast Rounding To.

(Special to The Evening World.)
SHEEPSHEAD BAY, Sept. 1.—There was an agreeable change in the weather at Sheepshead Bay this morning. The track during the galloping hours was in first class shape, not fast, but fairly dry and afforded good footing.

August Belmont's two-year-old Gallant covered six furlongs in 1:21-1/2. He is a candidate for the Kirtland at seven furlongs, to be decided on Saturday, and should be at his best.

J. E. Madden sent Pulsus six furlongs in 1:21-1/2. Raglan covered the same distance in 1:20. Pulsus is a Flatbush candidate. The stable's other Flatbush eligibles, Adbell, The Minute Man, Aristocrat and Gettysburg, were shown to trotting and cantering exercises.

MILLIKEN OF BUFFALO.
Milliken, the left-handed wonder of the Buffalo team, was once a Cincinnati possibility, but when President Herrmann got to Buffalo he changed his mind about Milliken, having signed Kelium and was instrumental in the New York club securing him.

NAMED BY THE PEOPLE.
Half a century ago, when the late Rev. Father John O'Brien, of Lowell, Mass., recommended to his parishioners and friends the prescription that had restored him to health and strength, the people named him as Father John's Medicine, and so it became known and was advertised with his knowledge and approval. The prescription of an eminent specialist, it is pure and wholesome and free from alcohol and poisonous narcotics or nerve-deadening drugs in any form—it is not a patent medicine. Its power to make strength and build up the body explains why it has been so successful for fifty years in curing colds and all throat and lung troubles.
